32 MEGHA KAPOOR

For the Indian artist, expressiveness is synonymous with freedom. Her work as a floral painter consists in transferring her unique vision of the subject onto paper.

36 JANICE CIPRIANI-WILLIS

Her lively and colourful portraits seek to go beyond what she calls "just a portrait" and capture the intimacy of her models.

42 ALFRED T. GALURA

The Filipino artist paints highly personal still lifes that are the result of his practice and experience and which demonstrate his wide range of know-how.

50 PORTFOLIO: WENDY ARTIN

Combining elegance and finesse, suggestive without being too descriptive, her still lifes constitute plays on forms where the whole takes precedence over the detail.

60 REVELATIONS

64 RIC DENTINGER

This American artist likes to take objects scarred by time and bring out their hidden beauty by relying on values.

80 JOHN COONEY

Fascinated by the beauty of landscapes and the spectacle of nature, the Irish artist talks about his approach to watercolour.

Isabelle Estrade.

92 HISTORY: HANS HEYSEN

The German-born Australian artist (1877-1968) is one of Australia's best known landscape painters, thanks to his watercolours of monumental Australian gum trees.
